v.

TSE GROUP LLC d/b/2 B.B. KING BLUES CLUB AND GRILL and TSION BENSUSAN

DECLARATION OF DAVID CZYZYK

- I, David Czyzyk, under penalty of perjury, swear/affirm as follows:
- 1. My name is David Czyzyk.
- 2. I was employed by TSE Group as a server at B.B. King Blue Club ("B.B.

King") from the end of 2005 until July of 2006.

3. When I worked in excess of 40 hours per week at B.B. King, I was not paid an overtime premium. This is reflected on my attached paystubs.

- 4. When I began working at B.B. King, I was told by Ben Javreck that it was B.B. Kings practice not to pay servers for their first four or five shifts. I was not paid at all for my first four or five shifts.
- 5. I was informed by B.B. King's management, specifically Gabby Brechner and Anthony (last name unknown) that its practice is to charge an employee for a customer's bill when that customer does not pay the bill. For example, when a customer walks out without paying his bill (a "walk-out"), the restaurant forces the waiter to pay for the customer's bill.
- 6. I was several times forced to pay for walk-outs. On one occasion I paid close to $200 to cover a walk-out's bill.
- 7. My paychecks consistently reflected unexplainable $5 reductions. Upon inquiry, I was told by B.B. King's accountant, Andy Clark, that the deduction went to cover porters' salaries.
- 8. I frequently worked in excess of 10 hours a day. I did not receive New York's "spread of hours" pay for those days.
- 9. On June 20, 2007, I was informed by several B.B. King employees that the company had offered to pay them amounts of money as reimbursement for the $5 deductions that was deducted from their paychecks. To receive the money, employees were required to sign a release form purporting to release the company from any claims that the employee may have against it. One employee provided me with a copy of the employee's release form. (A true and correct copy of this release form is attached to this declaration.) One employee told me that Tsion Bensusan himself had offered the employee money in exchange for an executed release form.

I swear/affirm, under penalty of perjury, that the above and foregoing information is true and correct.

Acknowledgement and Release

I, ______, am currently employed as a server at B.B. King Blues Club and Grill (the "Restaurant").

I acknowledge that, in accordance with my request, the Restaurant had deducted $5.00 per week from my weekly pay.

I understand that the Restaurant no longer makes such deductions from my pay. In that connection, the Restaurant has provided me with a check for applicable payrol! deductions (the "Check"), which is in excess of the total amount of the deductions that the Restaurant has made from my pay throughout my employment at the Restaurant.

In exchange for the payments in the Check, I agree to and hereby do release and discharge the Restaurant, its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates and their successors or assigns, directors, officers, representatives and employees from any and all claims arising out of my employment at the Restaurant occurring up and including the date that I signed this Acknowledgement and Release. This Acknowledgement and Release includes, but is not limited to, any claims arising under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, the New York Labor Law or any other federal, state or local laws, rules or regulations.

I further acknowledge and agree that neither the Check nor this Acknowledgement and Release constitutes an admission by the Restaurant of any liability. I also acknowledge that I have been paid properly by the Restaurant for all hours worked.
